

Charting the LifeCourse Training for all AAW & ACAP Support Coordinators: Registration is OPEN!

ODP Announcement 19-096

AUDIENCE:

All AAW & ACAP Support Coordinators

PURPOSE:

To communicate that registration is open for a two-day Support Coordinator training on Charting the LifeCourse by the Office of Developmental Programs.

DISCUSSION:

The Office of Developmental Programs (ODP), Bureau of Supports for Autism and Special Populations (BSASP) is offering a two-day training for Support Coordinators in the AAW and ACAP programs. The training will offer an overview of the Charting the LifeCourse tools and resources to support the framework. We will highlight why the framework is important to the work within ODP, offer presentations on ways that it is already being used within ODP, and further discuss ways that BSASP programs can use these tools to support the people within our programs. Additionally, we will have a presentation on resources and supports that currently exist through the lens of the LifeCourse Framework.

WHEN:

August 5, 2019 – 10:00am to 4:00pm & August 6, 2019 – 9:00am to 2:00pm
