

Reminder: Communication Matters Training Opportunity

Communication is foundational and forms the basis of our interactions. Having effective communication, both as the expressive communicator and the listener, shows respect and value of the other person. ODP will be holding four virtual sessions that will include information surrounding the complexity and importance of communication. Attendees will leave with strategies and tools to better support those with complex communication needs.

To Register, please click on one of the following available sessions:

May 19th from 11:00am-2:00pm

May 22nd from 12:00pm- 3:00pm

May 27th from 12:30- 3:30pm

*May 28th from 9:00am- 12:00pm *This session will be available in

English and American Sign Language

Contact the Special Populations Unit at RA-PWSpecialPopUnit@pa.gov with any questions.