

Medication Administration Training Requirements by Service

This document provides clarification about whether medication administration training is required by regulation, and which type of medication administration training is required when medications will be administered by staff, consultants or contractors as part of service provision.

Service	Medication Administration Training Course Required
Community Participation Support (ID/A Waivers<sup>1</sup> or Base-Funded) or Day Habilitation (AAW) provided for any percentage of time in a service location licensed under 55 Pa. Code Chapter 2380 or 2390* facility *Day Habilitation in the AAW may not be provided in a 2390 facility.	Yes Type: Standard Medication Administration Training Course Exclusions: Medications administered as part of the service by a licensed physician, licensed dentist, licensed physician’s assistant, registered nurse, certified registered nurse, licensed paramedic or other health care professional who is licensed, certified or registered by the Department of State to administer medications.
Community Participation Support (ID/A Waivers or Base-Funded) or Day Habilitation (AAW) provided 100% of time in the community (no time spent in a service location licensed under 55 Pa. Code Chapter 2380 or 2390)	Yes Type: Modified Medication Administration Training Course Exclusions: Medications administered as part of the service by a licensed physician, licensed dentist, licensed physician’s assistant, registered nurse, certified registered nurse, licensed paramedic or other health care professional who is licensed, certified or registered by the Department of State to administer medications.
Education Support (ID/A Waivers and Base-Funding)	No: Exempt as a vendor service
Homemaker/Chore (ID/A Waivers and Base-Funding)	No: Administration of medications is not covered by this service
In-Home and Community Support (ID/A Waivers and Base-Funding) or Community Support (AAW)	Yes Type: Modified Medication Administration Training Course Exclusions: Medications administered by a relative as part of the service. Medications administered by a Support Service Professional (SSP) in either of the participant-directed services models as part of the service. Medications

<sup>1</sup> ID/A Waivers encompass the Consolidated, Community Living and Person/Family Directed Support Waivers.

Medication Administration Training Requirements by Service

This document provides clarification about whether medication administration training is required by regulation, and which type of medication administration training is required when medications will be administered by staff, consultants or contractors as part of service provision.

Service	Medication Administration Training Course Required
	administered as part of the service by a licensed physician, licensed dentist, licensed physician's assistant, registered nurse, certified registered nurse, licensed paramedic or other health care professional who is licensed, certified or registered by the Department of State to administer medications.
Residential Habilitation provided in a home licensed under 55 Pa. Code Chapter 3800, 6400 or 5310 (ID/A Waivers and Base-Funding)  Residential Habilitation (Community Home) provided in a home licensed under 55 Pa. Code Chapter 6400 (AAW)	Yes  Type: Standard Medication Administration Training Course  Exclusions: Medications administered as part of the service by a licensed physician, licensed dentist, licensed physician's assistant, registered nurse, certified registered nurse, licensed paramedic or other health care professional who is licensed, certified or registered by the Department of State to administer medications.
Residential Habilitation provided in an unlicensed home (ID/A Waivers and Base-Funding)	Yes  Type: Modified Medication Administration Training Course  Exclusions: Medications administered as part of the service by a licensed physician, licensed dentist, licensed physician's assistant, registered nurse, certified registered nurse, licensed paramedic or other health care professional who is licensed, certified or registered by the Department of State to administer medications.
Respite (ID/A Waivers, Base-Funding and AAW) provided in a licensed setting for any amount of time	Requirement varies by licensing chapter  Type: Medication Administration requirements apply per licensing regulations
Respite (ID/A Waivers, Base-Funding and AAW) provided in an unlicensed setting for fewer than 30 days in a 12-month period	No: Exempt under 6100.469

Medication Administration Training Requirements by Service

This document provides clarification about whether medication administration training is required by regulation, and which type of medication administration training is required when medications will be administered by staff, consultants or contractors as part of service provision.

Service	Medication Administration Training Course Required
Respite (ID/A Waivers, Base Funding and AAW) provided in an unlicensed setting for 30 or more days in a 12-month period	Yes Type: Modified Medication Administration Training Course Exclusions: Medications administered by a relative as part of the service. Medications administered by a Support Service Professional (SSP) in either of the participant-directed services models as part of the service.
Supported Employment Job Coaching and Support (ID/A Waivers and Base-Funding) provided for fewer than 30 days in a 12-month period Intensive Job Coaching and Extended Employment Supports (AAW) provided for fewer than 30 days in a 12-month period	No: Exempt under 6100.469
Supported Employment Job Coaching and Support (ID/A Waivers and Base-Funding) provided for 30 or more days in a 12-month period Intensive Job Coaching and Extended Employment Supports (AAW) provided for 30 or more days in a 12-month period.	Yes Type: Modified Medication Administration Training Course Exclusions: Medications administered by a relative as part of the service. Medications administered by a Support Service Professional (SSP) in either of the participant-directed services models as part of the service.
Supported Employment Career Assessment, Job Finding or Development (ID/A Waivers and Base-Funding) Career Planning Vocational Assessment and Job Finding (AAW)	No: Administration of medication is not covered by this service
Supports Coordination (ID/A Waivers, Base Funding and AAW)	No: Administration of medication is not covered by this service

Medication Administration Training Requirements by Service

This document provides clarification about whether medication administration training is required by regulation, and which type of medication administration training is required when medications will be administered by staff, consultants or contractors as part of service provision.

Service	Medication Administration Training Course Required
Specialized Supplies (Only available through ID/A Waivers and Base-Funding)	No: Exempt as a vendor service
Therapy Services (ID/A Waivers, Base Funding and AAW)	No: Administration of medication is not covered by this service
Supports Broker Services (ID/A Waivers and Base-Funding)	No: Administration of medication is not covered by this service
Advanced Supported Employment (ID/A Waivers and Base-Funding)  Job coaching provided for fewer than 30 days in a 12-month period	No: Exempt under 6100.469
Advanced Supported Employment (ID/A Waivers and Base-Funding)  Job coaching provided for 30 or more days in a 12-month period	Yes  Type: Modified Medication Administration Training Course  Exclusions: Medications administered by a relative as part of the service. Medications administered by a Support Service Professional (SSP) in either of the participant-directed services models as part of the service.
Assistive Technology (ID/A Waivers, Base Funding and AAW)	No: Exempt as a vendor service
Behavioral Support (ID/A Waivers and Base-Funding) or Behavioral Specialist Services (AAW)	No: Administration of medication is not covered by this service
Benefits Counseling (ID/A Waivers and Base-Funding)	No: Administration of medication is not covered by this service
Communication Specialist (ID/A Waivers and Base-Funding)	No: Administration of medication is not covered by this service
Community Transition Services (AAW)	No: Administration of medication is not covered by this service

Medication Administration Training Requirements by Service

This document provides clarification about whether medication administration training is required by regulation, and which type of medication administration training is required when medications will be administered by staff, consultants or contractors as part of service provision.

Service	Medication Administration Training Course Required
Companion (ID/A Waivers and Base-Funding)	Yes Type: Modified Medication Administration Course Exclusions: Medications administered by a relative as part of the service. Medications administered by a Support Service Professional (SSP) in either of the participant-directed services models as part of the service.
Consultative Nutritional Services (ID/A Waivers and Base-Funding) or Nutritional Consultation (AAW)	No: Administration of medication is not covered by this service
Family/Caregiver Training and Support (ID/A Waivers and Base-Funding) or Family Support (AAW)	No: Administration of medication is not covered by this service
Home Accessibility Adaptations (ID/A Waivers and Base-Funding) or Home Modifications (AAW)	No: Exempt as a vendor service
Housing Transition and Tenancy Sustaining Service (ID/A Waivers and Base-Funding)	No: Administration of medication is not covered by this service
Life Sharing (ID/A Waivers and Base-Funding) provided in licensed and unlicensed homes, by relatives and unrelated life sharers, staff, consultants and contractors Residential Habilitation (Life Sharing) provided in a home licensed under 55 Pa. Code Chapter 6500 (AAW).	Yes Type: Modified Medication Administration Training Course Exclusions: Medications administered as part of the service by a licensed physician, licensed dentist, licensed physician's assistant, registered nurse, certified registered nurse, licensed paramedic or other health care professional who is licensed, certified or registered by the Department of State to administer medications.
Music Therapy, Art Therapy and Equine Assisted Therapy (ID/A Waivers and Base-Funding)	No: Administration of medication is not covered by this service
Shift Nursing (ID/A Waivers and Base-Funding)	No: Registered nurses, certified registered nurse practitioners and licensed practical nurses may

Medication Administration Training Requirements by Service

This document provides clarification about whether medication administration training is required by regulation, and which type of medication administration training is required when medications will be administered by staff, consultants or contractors as part of service provision.

Service	Medication Administration Training Course Required
	administer medication without taking a medication administration training course
Small Group Employment (ID/A Waivers, Base Funding and AAW)	Yes  Type: Modified Medication Administration Training Course
Supported Living (ID/A Waivers and Base-Funding)	Yes  Type: Modified Medication Administration Course  Exclusions: Medications administered as part of the service by a licensed physician, licensed dentist, licensed physician’s assistant, registered nurse, certified registered nurse, licensed paramedic or other health care professional who is licensed, certified or registered by the Department of State to administer medications.
Systematic Skill Building (AAW)	No: Administration of medication is not covered by this service
Temporary Supplemental Services (AAW)	Yes  Type: Depends on the provider type enrolled to deliver the service and the type of service supplemented.
Transportation (ID/A Waivers, Base Funding and AAW)	No: Administration of medication is not covered by this service
Vehicle Accessibility Adaptation (ID/A Waivers and Base-Funding) or Vehicle Modifications (AAW)	No: Exempt as a vendor service